THE IMPORTANCE OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE IN THE MODERN WORLD A STRONG COMMAND OF ENGLISH CAN OPEN DOORS TO EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITES THAT MAY OTHERWISE REMAIN OUT OF REACH

Iminova Maxsuma Anvarjanovna
Andijan state of international foreign language
Faculty of Philology
Secondary School No.18,English language teacher

Abstract: This article aims to explain the importance of learning English in today's world. It discusses the main benefits of knowing English in education, work, travel, and communication. The article also shows the possible disadvantages of not learning English. Several examples and arguments are used to explain these points. The results show that English can provide more opportunities for people in different areas of life. In conclusion, the article aims to motivate people to learn English and understand its importance.

Keywords: English language english learning, importance, Education, Communication, opportunities.

English has become one of the most important languages in the modern world.English is the language of international business and is increasingly becoming the lingua franca in many industries.A language achieves a genuinely global status when it developsa special role that is recognized in every county.(1)However many people stil do not fully understand to benefits of learning English or the opportunities they may miss without it.Therefore, this article discusses the importance of English,it is main benefits and the possible disadvantages of not knowing the language, with a focus on people who want to communication opportunities.

English is a globally spoken language. There can be no doubt that English is a hugely significant language.It is the official language in a large number of countries and is one of the official languages of the European Union and many international organizations.With so many uses of English, it is no wonder that more and more people are choosing to learn this global language. Knowing English is like possessing the fabled Aladdin's lamp,which permits one to open,as it were, the linguistic gates to international business,technology,science and travel.(2)

Knowing Emglish can help you get a job In many parts of the world.Studying English gives you an advantage in the job market because a lot of employers require their employees to have a good level of English.In some countries, such as China,

Singapore ,not knowing English can put you at a disadvantagewhen applying for jobs. Even If the job does not require knowledge of English.This is because knowing English demonstrates that that you have strong communicationskills, which is an important quality that employers value.English is oftena decisive factor in employment opportunities with higher earnings.(3)

What opportunities does knowing English provide?

With English, You will be able to study anywhere in the world. English is the language of education.A large number of the world's top universities such as Oxford,Cambridge, Harvard require their students to have a good level of English to be admitted. In addition several universities offer programs taught in English,so being proficient in the language can give a wider range of options.English is a key competency needed for getting access to a prestigious international education(4)

Learning English can open many opportunities in education, work, and communication. The information discussed in this article shows that English can help people access better universities, find more career opportunities, and communicate internationally. Therefore, people should see English not only as a language to study, but also as a useful skill for their future. Improving English skills can help overcome many educational and professional barriers. For this reason, learning English should be considered an investment in personal and professional development. The more people improve their English, the more opportunities they can create for themselves.

References:

1.Crystal,D.(2003). English as a Global Language.Cambridge University Press.

2.Kachru,B,B. (1986),The Alchemy of English Pergamon Press.

3.Roshid,M. M.,& Chowdhury, R. (2003).English Language Profiency and Employment.

4.Bezborodova,A. &Radjabzade,S. (2021).English in higher education in the KyrgyzRepublic,Tajikistan, and Uzbekistan. World Englishes,41(1), 72-91.